A tribute to the Bee Gees

Massachusetts brengt een perfecte show waarin alle bekende hits van de Bee Gees de revue passeren. Ballads maar ook de hits uit de Saturday-night-fever periode. Wie herinnert zich niet Spicks and Specks, I Started a Joke, Words of ( jawel ) Massachusetts?

Samenstelling van de groep

Michel Azais / Vocals and guitar

This Belgian singer, has recorded several albums. His last record, "Mon Lundi d' Ostende", has had success in different (French speaking) countries, and Canada. He is the founder of Massachusetts, and has been a huge fan of the Bee Gees since childhood.

Marc Bouille / Vocals

Marc gives singing lessons, and has sung in different disco-funk bands. As a falsetto specialist of great quality, he takes on the Barry Gibb voice from the disco era.

Raphaël Laforgia / Guitar and vocals

This generally accepted guitar player is a passionate lover of the acoustic guitar, (finger picking technique). He manages his own musical projects, and escorts for professional musicians, and other singers. Raphael also represents the discreet and precious voice which is so distinctive for the harmonic sound of the Brothers Gibb.

Benoit Poncin / Bass guitar and vocals

Benoit has already been on stage for more than a decade. He escorts as well "live" as he does in the studio with different artists, and pop/rock bands. He has taken part in several musical projects, and has a strong developed feeling for cooperation within the band.

Thierry Vingre / Keyboard and vocals

The tracks of the Bee Gees are often backed by soft and harmonic keyboard sounds. This part comes from Thierry, who is discreetly effective. Thierry, is a big fan of Motown music, and loves international amusement music, and all of the Bee Gees compositions.

Raphaël Pire / Drums

Raphael Pire, has developed himself during the past few years as an effectual drummer, within the Luikse surroundings. He has an American "groove" style of drumming. He has been influenced by singers such as, Sheryl Crow, and John Fogerty, and The Ben Taylor Band. Through his father, (Massachusetts band leader Michel Azais), he has been surrounded by the Bee Gees music since childhood.
